ORDER:(per Hon'ble Sri Justice B.Prakash Rao)

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner.

The petitioner, who is a party to the proceedings before the Lok Adalat and where an award has been passed in O.P.No.299 of 2005 dated 05-05-2006 on the file of the first respondent, files this writ petition seeking for a writ of certiorari only on the ground that the contesting respondent is not adhering to the terms as agreed to in the said settlement and the ultimate award which has been passed, and therefore, she sought to set aside the said award.

Having heard the learned counsel and also on perusal of the material on record, we are of the view that if any such order or decree or award is not being complied with, it is always open for the petitioner to execute the same or take such other steps or remedies as available to her under law. But on such ground the award cannot be set aside. However, it is an executable decree and the petitioner can as well take appropriate steps. In view of the same, we do not find any grounds to entertain the writ petition.

The writ petition is dismissed. No order as to costs.
